Ashbourne Coffee Nest Tables

The Ashbourne Nesting Coffee Tables draw inspiration from the ancient millstone grit of the Derbyshire Peak District, extraordinary outcrops of coarse sandstone fractured by millions of years of geological pressure into rugged, angular beauty.

Each table features hand-forged steel legs worked into repeating faceted segments, slightly rotated from one above, creating columns of geometric precision. The surface reveals extraordinary care and detail, each facet hand-worked and finished in flamed bronze.

Available as a nest of three with your choice of stone tops. The tables work together or independently, their scaled proportions allowing flexible arrangement in any interior.
