Cecil Coffee Table

Adam looked to the grand architectural traditions of antiquity to the hand-hewn stonework and wrought iron of centuries-old European estates, where craftsmanship was measured in hours spent at the forge rather than on the factory floor. The Cecil's flamed bronze frame is deliberately raw and tactile, its pitted, fire-kissed surface speaking of process and permanence in equal measure. Set against a top of cool, creamy limestone, the result is a piece of extraordinary tension, ancient and contemporary, rough and refined, all at once.

All pieces from our Somerset studio, are handmade to order to your exact specifications and available in bespoke sizes with a choice of finishes and tops.
