Fitzrovia Side Table

The Fitzrovia Side Table was inspired by the elegant café tables of early twentieth century Paris and London, those slender, tripod legged occasional tables that somehow managed to feel both entirely functional and effortlessly beautiful, pieces that belonged as naturally in a Bloomsbury drawing room as on a Montmartre pavement.

Four hand forged legs curve outward gently at the base before splaying into small, considered feet, while a lower circular ring ties the structure together and cradles a secondary limestone shelf, a detail that adds both practicality and a satisfying visual weight to the lower half of the piece. The light hammered texture running the full length of each leg and around both circular frames catches the flamed bronze finish with a warmth that glows particularly beautifully in low, ambient light.

All pieces from our Somerset studio, are handmade to order to your exact specifications and available in bespoke sizes with a choice of finishes and tops.
